

I would like to register my comments with all those at the FCC. I believe that the airwaves are the property of all Americans, and that any company who can give a service to the American people by using those airwaves with respect and responsibility should have the right to do so. XM radio is an excellent service rendered in a professional manner. Please allow them to continue their great service. Thank you for your consideration.